

Glossary of Terms

The following is a list of commonly used terms that are often referenced in housing policy.

Accessible: In reference to a type of housing unit, accessible refers to units that are designed to promote accessibility for individuals with disabilities. This sometimes includes physical elements such as low height cupboards or light switches, wide doorways, and adapted bathrooms.

Adequate Housing: Dwellings not requiring any major repairs, as reported by residents. (Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC))

Affordable Housing: Communities often set their own definition of affordable housing to best reflect the local context. Affordable housing means that residents are spending less than 30% of their before-tax income on housing and housing related costs such as mortgage, rent, utilities, etc. (Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC))

Assisted Living (Supportive Living): A type of housing for seniors and people with disabilities that includes on-site hospitality and personal care support services. (Alberta Health Services)

At Risk of Homelessness: Refers to people who are not homeless, but whose current economic and/or housing situation is precarious or does not meet public health and safety standards. (Canadian Observatory on Homelessness)

Cohousing: Private self-contained residences that are also centered around shared common spaces such as kitchens and dining areas.

Cooperative Housing: A co-op is a type of housing that residents own and operate as part of a membership. (BC Housing)

Coordinated Access: A coordinated access system is the process by which individuals and families who are experiencing homelessness or at-risk of homelessness are directed to community-level access points where trained workers use a common assessment tool to evaluate the individual or family's depth of need, prioritize them for housing support services and then help to match them to available housing focused interventions.

Chronic Homelessness: Refers to individuals who are currently experiencing homelessness and who have been homeless for six months over the past year.

Core Housing Need: A household is in core housing need if its housing does not meet one or more of the adequacy, suitability, or affordability standards and it would have to spend 30% or more of its before-tax income to access local housing that meets all three standards.

- Adequate housing is reported by residents as not requiring any major repairs.
- Affordable dwellings costs less than 30% of total before-tax household income.
- Suitable housing has enough bedrooms for the size and make-up of resident households, according to National Occupancy Standard (NOS) requirements. (CMHC)

Cultural Competency: The ability of systems to provide care to people with diverse values, beliefs and behaviours, including tailoring delivery to meet a person’s social, cultural and linguistic needs. (HomelessHub)

Emergency Housing: Immediate, short-stay housing for people who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless.

Episodic Homelessness: Refers to individuals who are currently homeless and have experienced three or more episodes of homelessness in the past year (episodes are defined as periods when a person would be in a shelter or place not fit for human habitations, and after at least 30 days, would be back in the shelter or inhabitable location. (Built For Zero Canada)

Homelessness: Describes the situation of an individual, family or community without stable, permanent, appropriate housing, or the immediate prospect, means and ability of acquiring it. (Canadian Observatory on Homelessness)

Housing First: Is a recovery-oriented approach to ending homelessness that centres on quickly moving people experiencing homelessness into independent and permanent housing and then providing additional supports and services as needed. There are five core principles of Housing First:

1. Immediate access to permanent housing with no housing readiness requirements
2. Consumer choice and self-determination
3. Recovery orientation
4. Individuals and client-driven supports, and
5. Social and community integration

Housing Secure: Refers to security of tenure; not having to worry about being evicted for having your home or lands taken away. (National Women’s Association of Canada)

2SLGBTQ+: Two-spirit, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and additional identities.

Market Housing: Market housing is housing which the private industry provides without requiring any subsidies or incentives.

Mixed Income Housing: Any type of housing development (rent or owned) that includes a range of income levels among its residents, including low, moderate and/or higher incomes. (National Housing Strategy)

Non-Market Housing: Non-market housing is housing that typically requires additional subsidies or supports from other organizations and government bodies.

On-Site Supports: Services offered to households in order to maintain their optimal level of health and well-being. These services may take a variety of forms and may vary in intensity based on people’s needs. A few examples include case management, counselling, supervision/monitoring, assistance with medication, psychosocial rehabilitation, childcare, meal services, personal care, housekeeping, and other forms of support that help people to live independently and remain stably housed. (National Housing Strategy)

Primary Rental Housing Units: Rental housing units that were built for the primary purpose of being rented.

Rent-Geared-to-Income: A type of subsidized housing where the housing provider matches your rent to how much you earn. (BC Housing)

Secondary Rental Housing Units: Housing units that were not purpose built for the rental market but have been added to the rental market by the owner, such as rental condominiums.

Social Housing: Social housing is subsidized housing that generally was developed under federal and provincial programs during the 1950s – 1990s, where ongoing subsidies enable rents to be paid by residents on a ‘rent-geared-to-income’ (RGI) basis (i.e., 30% of gross household income). Social housing is also called subsidized, RGI, community, or public housing.

Subsidized housing: A type of housing which government provides financial support or rent assistance.

Suitable Housing: Housing with enough bedrooms for the size and make-up of residential households. (CMHC)

Supportive Living: A type of housing that provides on-site supports and services to residents to help them remain as independent as possible, but with access to services to meet their changing needs (e.g., mental health supports, life skills training). (Alberta Health Services)

Tenure: Refers to whether a household owns or rents their home.

Transitional Housing: Housing that is intended to offer a supportive living environment for its residents, including offering them the experience, tools, knowledge, and opportunities for social and skill development to become more independent. It is considered an intermediate step between emergency shelter and supportive housing and has limits on how long an individual or family can stay. Stays are typically between three months and three years. (National Housing Strategy)
